

Maths mufti — no problem !

- Make a hat – numbers on an old hat or hairband
- Wear an apron with numbers
- Decorate a t-shirt or pillow case with sums
- Attach cards to your clothes
- Make number earrings or necklaces
- Wear bead strings
- Spotty t shirt and sign 'How many spots can you count ?'
- Create a cardboard cut out of a calculator
- Become a maths professor – jacket and glasses
- Dice – stick on dots
- Re-use a Halloween costume to become 'Count Dracula'
- Cover yourself in lottery slips or bingo cards or cloakroom tickets or till receipts
- Be a clock
- Come dressed as Monopoly Money
- Be a Rubiks Cube Kid
- Come as a fraction – pizza slice, piece of cake ?
- Be a famous equation
- Be a game of noughts and crosses
- Odds and evens – wear odd socks, gloves, shoes
- Be a human stopwatch or scales

